

Colonel Jose Luis Carbonell Navarro

Head of the Digital Transformation Section

Born in Valencia. He graduated from the General Military Academy as Artillery Lieutenant in 1987 and in 2000 he graduated with a General Staff Diploma.

His military assignments during more than 35 years of service are related to Artillery Units, highlighting the command of GACA XI and RAAA 73, and in DEM destinations, in different national and multinational General Headquarters, as well as in the EME of the ET. Currently and for 4 years he has commanded the Digital Transformation Section in the DIVPLA of the EME.

He has a diploma in General Staff and Geodesy, a degree in Physical Sciences and has national and foreign courses related to operations, intelligence, logistics, targeting, information, fire support, missiles and information and communication technologies.

He has participated in multiple peacekeeping missions in Bosnia Herzegovina, Kosovo, Afghanistan, Lebanon, among others.